GET TO KNOW GULF SHORES

GULF SHORES LIFESTYLE

Gulf Shores is a beautiful city located at the end of Hwy 59 South of Foley, AL and just like the welcome sign says it truly is a small town with a big beach. Whether you want peaceful seclusion, an adrenaline rush or bustling night life, you'll be sure to find it on Alabama's Gulf Coast. This area is the perfect getaway and has a little something for everyone.

Nestled in a protective bay on the Gulf of Mexico, Gulf Shores is a popular spot for boating, fishing, and many other water sports. Our beautiful, warm weather means you can enjoy the beach year round. With plenty of opportunities for shopping and long walks on the beach, you're sure to fall in love with Gulf Shores from the moment you set foot here.

GULF SHORES REAL ESTATE

Gulf Shores contains single-family homes and duplexes that are mostly primary residences or second homes. There are waterfront properties resting on the Gulf or a little lagoon. Use these popular home searches and available listings to find your dream home. Want to see a home in person?

BON SECOUR

GULF SHORES

GET TO KNOW BON SECOUR

The area is the epitome of easy living with fishing being the main priority of the day. The name “Bon Secour” is derived from the French phrase meaning “Safe Harbor” due to the secluded location on the inside coast of the Fort Morgan peninsula of Southern Alabama.

Home to one of the largest shrimp companies in the region, Bon Secour still maintains an eclectic and cozy feel. Simplicity and southern comfort combine to create a truly unique community. The pace is slow and the fishing is good in Bon Secour, AL!

The area is located in between Foley and Gulf Shores, on the west side of Highway 59. Starting from the Intracoastal Bridge in Gulf Shores it extends north to County Road 10. There are other county highways that lead to Bon Secour including County Road 4, also called Oyster Bay Road, County Road 6, and County Road 8. One can drive to the beach within 10-20 minutes or to the Eastern Shore in about 30 minutes.

SEARCH GULF SHORES BON SECOUR REAL ESTATE

Situated right at the intersection of Mobile and Bon Secour Bay, these welcoming residences put the “community” in the term waterfront community. Just a few of the neighborhoods in this area include Martyn Woods, Sunset Bay, and River Pines. Want to see a home in person? Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

WEST BEACH

GULF SHORES

LIFESTYLE

Gulf Shores West Beach has long been a favorite for family vacations. It is one of the oldest and best known beach spots in Baldwin County. Home to a majority of gulf front condo buildings and homes, this area has experienced solid growth over the last three decades. It stretches for more than 6 miles along the sugar white beaches of the Gulf. It also home to the south shore of the Little Lagoon. If you are not directly on the waterfront, don't worry. There are numerous public-access beach points that are easily reachable from nearly anywhere in West Beach.

EAST BEACH

GULF SHORES

LIFESTYLE

Whether playing in the pool, boogie boarding on the beach, or fishing the surf, there are numerous options to keep you busy in the East Beach area. In addition to the sandy beaches, Gulf State Park is a major attraction in this part of Gulf Shores. The park offers a fishing pier, 25 miles of trails, a golf course, miles of quiet beaches, and kayak and bike rentals, just to name a few, so be sure to pay it a visit! For buyers looking for an affordable beach home, look in this area first. Most of the homes are older beach cottages. Some are used as rentals, while even more are used as traditional second homes.

SEARCH EAST BEACH REAL ESTATE

The East Beach area is home to some of the most well-known vacation condo buildings in Gulf Shores, including Lighthouse, San Carlos, and Seawind. These newer buildings have been nicknamed “Rental Machines” because of the large rental income opportunity they deliver. Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

CENTRAL BEACH

GULF SHORES

LIFESTYLE

The area known as Central Gulf Shores has seen its fair share of growth within the past 10 years. As Gulf Shores has continued to welcome more and more seasonal guests and new residents, the city has definitely evolved to provide for this outstanding growth. The central area of Gulf Shores is one of the oldest communities on the island. Unusually varying elevations trademark this small area of mostly older homes surrounded by many small, local businesses. Within a portion of this area, the city has imparted rent restrictions regarding short-term rentals. Much of this area is situated on the Lagoon and is an excellent place for permanent or retirement living.

SEARCH CENTRAL BEACH REAL ESTATE

This area contains older single-family homes that are mostly primary residences or second homes. Use these popular home searches and available listings to find your dream home. Want to see a home in person?

NORTH BEACH

GULF SHORES

LIFESTYLE

There is always something fantastic for all ages in the Gulf Shores North area! For golfers, the Arnold Palmer designed Craft Farms course offers 36 holes of championship play. Meanwhile, if shopping is on your agenda, then head over to the Pelican Place Shopping Center, where you'll find many nationally and locally owned retailers. In addition to the great shopping, Pelican Place also offers the Cobb Movie Theatre that features 14 different screens. Oddly enough, they even sell adult beverages. After strolling through the lovely outdoor shopping area of Pelican Place, head south 1 mile to LuLu's at Homeport Marina for a delicious lunch and a one of a kind view of the barges and boating vessels traveling the Intracoastal Waterway

SEARCH NORTH BEACH REAL ESTATE

Gulf Shores North is mostly comprised of permanent residents living in traditional single family homes within subdivisions. However, there are also townhomes, condos, and apartments found here. From luxury golf course living to moderately priced garden homes, there is a perfect place for buyers with all budgets that want to call this area home. Want to see a home in person? Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

WEDGEWOOD

LIFESTYLE

Take a stroll through the newly revived Waterway District that is located along the Intracoastal Canal. While there, drop by Acme Oyster House for some chargrilled half shells before enjoying a frozen bushwhacker at Tacky Jacks. There is a public boat launch in the Waterway District too. Although this is one of the busiest launches in Gulf Shores if you live in Wedge Wood, you are one step ahead of the traffic. So grab the fishing poles and head to the great fishing found in the reefs in Mobile Bay.

The children will be entertained for hours at the numerous parks located around the Bodenhamer Recreational Center. There is a playground area, skate park, and ball fields. The onsite pavilion provides a great venue for birthday parties too. Just make sure to call ahead and reserve your date.

SEARCH WEDGE WOOD REAL ESTATE

Because nearly all of the people who live in the Wedge Wood community are permanent residents, most streets are dotted with traditional homes. Many are ranch or cottage style houses that were built with larger households in mind. Prices range from the mid $100k's to $500k for homes. There are only a handful of condo and townhome developments in Wedge Wood. However, they are often very affordable. It is one of the few places in Gulf Shores where a buyer can purchase a nice condo or townhome for less than $100k. Want to see a home in person?

EAST GULF SHORES

GULF SHORES

LIFESTYLE

In East Gulf Shores, you can enjoy all the charm and excitement of Gulf Shores just minutes from home. Mark your calendar for Mardi Gras in mid-to-late January to early March, the Hangout Music Fest in early May, fireworks on the beach during the Fourth of July, Back to School Beach Bash in August, and the Halloween Family Fun Night, just to name a few.

For shopping, take your pick of waterfront restaurants or hidden gems along Highway 59. A short drive away is The Pelican Place at Craft Farms, a shopping center anchored by Target, Cobb Theater, and a handful of big-box retailers.

SEARCH EAST GULF SHORES REAL ESTATE

East Gulf Shores has the hustle and bustle along the edges but is quiet and secluded inside this part of Gulf Shores, so if you're looking for an area close to the fast paced world but also want the luxury to retreat to calm quiet areas too this is the area for you.

East Gulf Shores contains mostly single-family homes, apartments, and limited duplexes. Most properties here are used as a permanent residence or as a second home. Use these popular home searches and available listings to find your dream home. Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

EASTERN SHORE

DISCOVER EASTERN SHORE

Fairhope - Daphne
Malbis - Spanish Fort

LIFESTYLE

The largest of the Eastern Shore towns, and largest in Baldwin County, is Daphne. With a population of nearly 26,000, it has seen a nearly 50 percent increase in the number of residents. It has all you might expect, from banks to grocery stores to a Jubilee festival in the summer, one of the key standouts of this area. To the south is Fairhope, known for its dedication to the arts. This includes a number of galleries featuring local artisans as well as outdoor sculptures.

If it's history you are after, check out Spanish Fort and historic Malbis. The site of a Civil War battlefield, colonial era homes, and Native American homelands dating back thousands of years can all be found in the little town of Spanish Fort, home of the Interstate 10 bridge to Mobile. Named to the National Register of Historic Places, historic Malbis is the site of the glorious Malbis Memorial Greek Orthodox Church and the still-standing structures of a plantation established by Jason Malbis in the early 1900s. When coming to the beach region, be sure to take some time and look at all the riches the Eastern Shore has to offer.

The Eastern Shore contains single-family homes as well as detached properties, including condominiums. Waterfront homes are sought-after in communities like Spanish Fort, Daphne, and Fairhope.

FAIRHOPE

LIFESTYLE

Fairhope includes the Municipal Pier and Park, a nearly 1,500-foot structure jetting into Mobile Bay that is considered Fairhope's "town square." Dating back to 1894 and rebuilt after it was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina, the square welcomes visitors with a park and rose garden, while diners can grab a bite halfway down the pier. It's also a popular spot for walking, fishing, and checking out a pelican or two.

The city has about 15,000 residents, has above-average schools among counterparts in Baldwin County, and is also a haven for flowering plants of all kind. Want to see a home in person ?

SEARCH FAIRHOPE REAL ESTATE

Fairhope predominantly contains single-family homes, with a limited number of condo developments. Most all of these are primary residences, with only a handful being used as a vacation home. There are a limited number of waterfront properties that rest on Mobile Bay and on Fish River. Use these popular home searches and available listings to find your dream home. Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

DAPHNE

LIFESTYLE

Daphne, on the eastern portion of Mobile Bay, is known as the Jubilee City. The quaint location, full of historic homes and beachfront fishing camps, is home of the Jubilee Festival.

Daphne has seen a nearly 50 percent jump in its population since 2000, making it the most populous municipality in Baldwin County. It has all one might expect from a standard city such as numerous banks and grocery stores as well as access to a major highway, Interstate Route 10 to be exact.

SEARCH DAPHNE REAL ESTATE

Daphne's waterfront properties are popular picks among buyers, but the area also offers a wide variety of single-family homes, townhouses, and condominiums. Lots are plentiful, as well. The communities are just as diverse, ranging from low-maintenance condominium complexes to golf course communities to new construction neighborhoods. Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com

MALBIS

LIFESTYLE

This story of this land dates back to the early 1900s when Jason Malbis came from Chicago to settle this rural area near the eastern shores of Mobile Bay. Born in Greece, Jason started a 10,000-acre plantation that prospered and grew to include farmland, livestock, an electric power plant, an ice plant, and a turpentine still as well as providing the environment for Greek culture to grow. Although much of the plantation land has since been sold some of the original buildings remain, providing a historic record of plantation life in Alabama. The Greek identity of the land also adds to this record, lending to the plantation's listing on the National Register of Historic Places. You don't have to sacrifice your convenience to shopping and dining just to live in a quiet rural area. Recent growth has brought several high-profile retailers into the Malbis area, especially with the development of Eastern Shore Center along AL-181. You can find everything you need within the community, including a Sam's Club, Lowe's Home Improvement, Cracker Barrel, and various other restaurants. Want to see a home in person ?

SEARCH MALBIS REAL ESTATE

Malbis is an unincorporated community, so its homes often have a Daphne address. You can find anywhere from cozy cottage homes to larger suburban houses in this area, though vacant lots are still available for you to build your dream home. A country club community, Timber Creek Golf Club, is located in the Malbis area as well.

SPANISH FORT

EASTERN SHORE

LIFESTYLE

Historic Blakely State Park combines a diverse natural features and an abundance of history. The grounds are the site of the last major battle of the Civil War and also has remnants of the early Alabama town of Blakely, colonial era homes, and Native American settlements going back thousands of years. The bridge to Mobile stretches from the shores of this city, named for a Spanish fort from the Revolutionary war. It's also home to ecological wonders as part of the Mobile Bay Delta.

Spanish Fort has a population of about 8,300, which is an increase of more than a 1,000 from 2010. The small city is known as a bedroom community and it has among the best performing schools in Baldwin County.

SEARCH SPANISH FORT REAL ESTATE

Established communities and new construction subdivisions are sprinkled throughout Spanish Fort. Given the city's recent growth, you can find plenty of available lots in your preferred location. As for Spanish Fort's waterfront homes, these properties can be found on the bay, on the river, or on a stocked lake (like those in The Lakes community). Search gulfshorespropertysearch.com
